

“Everyone gets stuck in a style rut from time to time. There is a knack of putting together a fantastic outfit. Part of that is the way that you combine your clothes and accessories, then knowing where to wear that outfit. I can show you how.”

Wardrobe Analysis

We all need to get our basics (underwear, t-shirts, body tops, jeans etc.) right before we can get our wardrobe right. Helping people sort their basics out is so important, as this alone will give your wardrobe an extended life. I can also help you choose an outfit for a special occasion or pack a suitcase for a business trip or holiday. I'll help you dress to enhance your best features.

Personal Shopping

Shopping can sometimes be frustrating, like looking for a needle in a haystack. Over the years, I have learnt some tricks and short cuts that have helped me along the way. Once I know about you and your lifestyle, I can shop for you without you being there. Let me help make that shopping trip a cost-effective, fun and useful experience!

Grooming + Makeup

I did my first makeup and grooming course while working as Cabin Crew for British Airways. Since then, I've amassed lots of tips from makeup artists and colleagues all over the world. Working in such an unforgiving environment, I had to be "good at looking good". I also teach grooming for a corporate environment, where I help to train staff on appropriate attire and presentation.

Image Makeovers

Image makeovers are good for people who want a radical change in their appearance. This may include a combination of other services. All of our services are tailor-made for your needs. A typical Image Makeover client was a lady whose husband had just got a promotion. I helped change her image to match.

Social Etiquette

I have extensive experience in a demanding customer service environment and have also been a Customer Service Trainer. I can help prepare you or your staff for Client-facing roles, meetings and interviews, helping to build confidence, presence and impact.

All the services I offer are tailor-made to suit an individual or group, depending on their needs, time and budget. I love to help people, so to help someone feel good about their personal appearance comes with ease to me. I always aim to have my clients looking flawless by the time I've finished!
